Discover the artistry of Colombian coffee with La Luisa's infused selections, where innovative processing meets bold, unforgettable flavors.

Colombia Honey Co Fermented

#E240252

About the Cup

Grown in the lush highlands of Colombia, the beans undergo a honey fermentation process, where part of the mucilage is left on the bean during drying. This careful method amplifies the coffee's inherent sweetness and complexity, showcasing the farmers' dedication to quality and experimental techniques.
